Outsiders Musical Tribute

Music often helps define us, as it sets the mood and reminds the listener of people, places and times. The lyrics can often make a statement or send a message.

As you look at the characters from The Outsiders think about popular songs of today - or from the past- that may fit the personalities, moods, situations, and feelings of these characters.

{If you choose you may write/ create a song instead to fit with your Outsider character. This song should be at least 2 stanzas & /or 16 lines long. }

Whatever song you choose it needs to be school appropriate and a copy of the lyrics need to be included in your character study.
